

Joyous Noel!

So long 2013, goodbye, farewell, good riddens... and Welcome a New Year!

A lot can be said for the convenience of online shopping but as small business owners operating a brick and mortar store (or temporary tent-structure as we have for the past three months) nothing quite replaces the experience of shopping in High River during the holiday season! Many stores have hot chocolate ready to warm cold hands and tummies and Santa Claus makes a regular appearance at the Museum of the Highwood. Part of what makes this town so charming to visitors is the ability for High Riverites to make seemingly ordinary encounters exceptional experiences! Not only do local businesses offer a wide range of unique one-of-a-kind items, most everyone who walks in the door receives a genuine smile and a hug!

As the year draws to a close, we at Evanescence Gallery would like you to know how much we appreciate your continued support of our small business. It has been our pleasure to know and serve you. Wishing you and your families all of the joy the season promises; peace, love and goodwill to all who enter your lives and your hearts.

Happy Holidays from Arlene and Stephen
