

Evanescence Gallery

Evanescence is located in High River's temporary business park, Sprung Unit #5, until January 17, 2014

“We will be known forever by the tracks we leave.” Chief Dakota

The name 'January' derives from 'Janus' the God of gates and doorways - the God of beginnings and transitions. Janus is depicted with two faces looking in opposite directions – one forward and one back.

We have so many people to thank for enabling us to continue our small business in High River.

Although our original building won't be fully restored until February, we are still working hard behind the scenes - acquiring new production equipment, securing instructors, expanding our selection of creative materials and sourcing the best of original works by local and regional artists, authors and musicians.

Resuming business in post-flood High River has been a difficult decision but one we're fully committed to.

Thank you High River for your caring and support these past months. Please watch for news of our ribbon-cutting ceremony in February when we invite you to celebrate the return to our original location!

I Love High River and I'm staying!!

TOGETHER WE HAVE IT ALL!
