

Evanescence Gallery Reopens!

I am pleased to announce the grand re-opening celebration of Evanescence Gallery on Saturday, October 24th, 2015 and I am looking forward to welcoming everyone to our new downtown location!

Artists will be available to meet & greet visitors. Refreshments will be served between 10AM and 2PM. Swag bags will be given to the first 10 people through the doors and we will have a grand prize draw for an original oil painting by artist, Lissi Legge.

Many of our original artists have returned to showcase their fine art and hand-crafted works and we are happy to welcome a few new artists to our gallery!

We have also introduced a fabulous selection of steampunk hats and jewelry, personal care items and small-batch confections to our eclectic mix! Our attention, as always, is to the makers and celebrating their creative spirit! We hope you will join us in celebrating OUR creative space and our return to business in High River! ~ Arlene*

INTERESTED IN TAKING AN ART CLASS?

Our studio is all set up and adults are invited to sign up for classes in oil or acrylic painting. Students also receive a discount on all in-store art supply purchases.

SPECIAL EVENT - PRESENTATION BY AUTHOR MAUREEN ENNS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH 1 PM

Well-known author, educator, naturalist and conservationist Maureen Enns will be at Evanesence Gallery on Saturday, November 7th. Please join us for this fascinating presentation as Maureen dispels some of the myths and misconceptions about animals in the wild and our responsibility to raise awareness in order to understand the impact of development in natural habitats. Copies of Maureen's book, Wild Horses, Wild Wolves will be available for purchase that day.
